Think about the story you’re telling.

1. Choose carefully what you want in your picture.

2. Focus on the positive, rather than the negative.

3. Think about the lasting impact of the image you are sharing.

4. Follow through.

- If you pull away too early you might lose motion blur, or miss the frame you want.
- Good photos shine a light on important issues.

Keep the flash off so standard and only put it on when you know you need it.

Where is your light coming from?
How much light do you have?

You are all finished.

For more information visit www.photovoice.org.